

Resource List

Certified Producer Certificate

Here is the link for the Certified Producers Certificate application:

<https://www.cdfa.ca.gov/is/i & c/cfm.html>

Our website for the Alameda County Dept. of Agriculture/Weights & Measures is:

<http://www.acgov.org/cda/awm/agprograms/commercial/market.htm>.

There you can access a list of the farmers markets operating within Alameda County.

In order to sell seedlings, cut flowers, or potted plants, you will also need a Nursery License. If you will be selling less than $1,000 in County, you may qualify for a Fee Exempt Nursery License. Fee Exempt

Nursery License

http://www.cdfa.ca.gov/plant/PE/Nursery/pdfs/nipm_2_4_fee_exempt_lic.pdf

http://www.cdfa.ca.gov/plant/pe/Nursery/pdfs/nipm_2_1.pdf

Helpful site on Certified Producer Requirements, Farmers Markers, and other requirements

<http://sfp.ucdavis.edu/pubs/SFNews/archives/93012/>

Weights and Measures Requirements

ucanr.edu/sites/CESonomaAgOmbuds/Selling_by_the_Pound

Standard Containers:

Food and Agricultural Code Section 47002 and California Code of Regulations Section 1392.19.

Organic Registration and Certification:

<https://www.cdfa.ca.gov/is/i & c/organic.html>

<https://organic.cdfa.ca.gov/OrganicReg/>

Any question on Certified Producer Certificate rules and regulations, Organic Registration and Certification, or Pesticide Use Regulations contact:

ALAMEDA COUNTY | Community Development Agency
Agricultural Commissioner/Sealer of Weights & Measures
Main Office 510-670-5232
www.acgov.org/cda