

UCCE PRESENTS THE 2019

AVOCADO PRODUCTION COURSE FOR NEW GROWERS

Classes will be held at the San Diego County Farm Bureau

420 S Broadway, Escondido, CA 92025

Tuesdays, 1-3PM

October 1st - November 12th (no class 10/15)

Dr. Gary Bender, UCCE Farm Advisor Emeritus and Sonia Rios, UCCE Farm Advisor will teach this course consisting of six, two hour, weekly classes and two field trips.

Registration Fee is $155 per person, which includes Avocado Production in California (books 1 & 2), and ANR Publication Propagating Avocados. Topics to be covered during the six Tuesday classes include: Botany, Flowering, Varieties, Harvest Dates, Rootstocks, Irrigation Systems & Scheduling, Salinity Management, Fertilization, Organic Production, Economics, Insect and Mite Control, Disease and Weed Management, Canopy Management, Tree Spacing, Frost Management, and more. The final Syllabus will be provided at the first class. Field Trip Dates TBD

Space is limited register today - <http://bit.ly/2019avocado>

