Most of the things you do for 4-H can only be entered in one place on your PDR.
There are exceptions: Committees, Field Days, and Fairs.

*** Committees: If you serve on a committee, and then you attend the event that your committee serves, you can get credit for your committee work in Section 4: Leadership, and attending the event in Section 3: Event

*** County Fairs:

Section 2 Project Skills: Enter one activity in section 2 for each of the following:

* Each livestock entry

* Each still project entry (only one per category)

* Each time you enter the ring to be judged for SHOWMANSHIP only. (The Market Competitions are a required part of entering a market animal in the fair. Showmanship competitions are optional, and extra credit)

* Each time you judge something ex: vegetable judging, livestock judging

Section 3 Event Attended: Each fair you attend (including the fairs in which you are an exhibitor) count as an event attended

*** Field Days

Enter one project skill activity in section 2 for each of the following:

* Each time you judge something

* For each item you exhibit

Each field day you attend counts as a separate event attended in section 3 of your PDR

*** Presentation Nights

If you give a presentation at presentation night, you can get credit for both attending the event (3: Events Attended) and for presenting (section 6: Communication Skills)
