

UCANR eNews Bulletin – July 2021

Check out our Newsletter provided by University of California Agriculture

News

UC San Joaquin Valley CE Trees and Vines

May 17, 2021

Targeted wintertime flooding on ag fields could improve the water supply for rural Californians

May 26, 2021

2021 Pistachio Irrigation: Mitigation Strategies for Drought

April 28, 2021

Whole Orchard Recycling Factsheet Available!

Pest Management in SJV

Invasive species

Bagrada hilaris \(Painted Bug\)

Education: Recorded Webinars/Trainings

- North San Joaquin Almond Day videos are now online.
- Pistachio Short Course videos
- In-Field Evaluation of Water Infiltration

Cover Cropping in the San Joaquin Valley presented by UC ANR/USDA ARS on May 18th, 2021

- Cover Cropping in the San Joaquin Valley

Two videos from Cover Cropping in the San Joaquin Valley presented by UC ANR/USDA ARS on April 20th, 2021

- Cover Cropping in a Raisin Vineyard with Steven Cardoza
- Cover Crops in Perennials in the San Joaquin Valley-USDA ARS

Advisor Update: Pest Management in SJV

Provisional Guidelines for Brown Marmorated Stink Bug Control in Almond

Area IPM Advisor in Northern SJV currently conducting projects on stink bugs monitoring in almond, flatheaded borer monitoring in walnuts, various projects on navel orangeworm in almond and walnut, and spotted wing drosophila in cherries.