Position available for Community Education Specialist

Shulamit Shroder

I'm leaving my position as a community education specialist for the climate smart agriculture program in 2 weeks. I'm off to UC Davis to continue learning about soil, cover crops, and groundwater. I've enjoyed working with and learning from all of you.

UCCE is hiring for my replacement. Please send this announcement along to anyone who might be interested. I will not be on the hiring committee, but can answer any questions you may have about the position.
