

PREPARED BY: Nicholas Clark

DATE: February 3, 2022

Golden State Dairy Management Seminars @ the Farm Show

February 8 & 9, 2022

Presentations will be in Seminar Trailer #2

Need CEUs?

ARPAS: 1 CEU/session; 4 total available

CCA: 2 CEU available)

Nutrient Management: 1 CEU (Sessions 1 & 2)

Soil & Water Management: 1 CEU (Session 4)

CDFA INMP: 2 CEU available

Nitrogen Management: 1 CEU (Sessions 1 & 2)

Irrigation Management 1 CEU (Session 4)

Tuesday, February 8, 2022

UC Dairy Series: Session 1 @ 1:00 pm – Nutrient Management & Manure Treatment Technologies

Farm Advisors, Anthony Fulford, Joy Hollingsworth and Nicholas Clark will present nutrient management with digester effluent, incorporating vacuumed manure into your nutrient management needs and nutrient management with other advanced treatment options.

UC Dairy Series: Session 2 @ 2:00 pm – Manure management options on your dairy

Presenters Betsy Karle, Dr. Frank Mitloehner, and Dr. Ruihong Zhang will discuss CDFA's Alternative Manure Management Program - where to start, manure technologies & pre/post greenhouse gas emissions, and Novel technologies for manure management on dairies.

Wednesday, February 9, 2022

UC Dairy Series: Session 3 @ 1:00 pm – Feeding the California Dairy Herd

Dr. Ed DePeters and Farm Advisor Jennifer Heguy will present information on almond hull usage on California dairies, almond hulls - the story continues. Dr. Dan Putnam will discuss low lignin alfalfa considerations for yield & feed quality lignin alfalfa and the impacts of harvest schedule and variety on yield and quality.

UC Dairy Series: Session 4 @ 2:00 pm – Water-wise dairying

Nick Clark, Khaled Bali, Irrigation Water Management Specialist and Assistant Professor, UC Davis, Mark Lundy will present sugar beet and safflower – yield, water use & nutrient management considerations, maximizing water productivity from winter small grains in California, and deficit irrigation and winter groundwater recharge in alfalfa.

Full Agenda – Golden State Dairy Conference World Ag Expo Seminars

For more information, please contact: Nick Clark, neclark@ucanr.edu, 559-852-2788.

This event is open to the public.