Why is Public Speaking Important?

- It will enhance your ability to communicate with others and help increase your self confidence.
- Public speaking will make you more comfortable around other people.
- It is one of the most effective ways to get your point across to others.
- It will make a difference in your future life, career and community.
- Public speaking allows to demonstrate and increase your knowledge of your subject.
- The ability to speak in public makes you stand out from others in school and the workplace.
- To become a leader you must learn how to communicate.
