

Fieg-Tucker 4-H Memorial Scholarship Application Instructions for College Students

Qualifications and Instructions

1. After receiving the first scholarship as a high school senior, recipients are eligible to reapply for scholarships for three more years.
 - a. The three years of eligibility shall not be extended even though the individual does not receive a scholarship because of failure to submit an application, maintain a good scholastic record, complete all requirements for re-application, enroll in college for a year; or an individual is disqualified for any other reasons.
 - b. Eligibility for scholarships is forfeited for the year of disqualification.
2. Community College or Two-Year Program Special School
 - a. Scholarships will be awarded for the two years of community college or special school.
 - b. Additional scholarships may be awarded to students continuing their education at a four-year college or university.
3. Scholarship recipients must be a full time student for the entire school year to receive the entire scholarship.
 - a. If a student is unable to take 12 units because of special circumstances, the Committee may review the situation if requested.
 - b. If a recipient does not attend school during the academic year for which he/she received the scholarship, the amount of the scholarship shall be forfeited.
4. Scholastic standing in college is the primary consideration for a continuing scholarship. Some consideration is given to continued involvement in the 4-H program within the context of the educational circumstances of the recipient.
5. The recipient must use the scholarship within the next academic school year.
6. If the recipient changes schools from the one indicated on the application or changes full-time status, the Committee is to be notified by the recipient and the Committee shall review the recipient's eligibility for the awarded amount.
7. The scholarship shall be paid in fall and winter/spring in two equal installments.
8. After the Committee has decided on the alumni scholarship grants, all applicants will be individually notified as to whether or not they are to receive a scholarship. When the scholarship is formally awarded, the recipient will be given instructions to receive the funds.
